MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Central Intelligence

SUBJECT : Compensation for Prospective Consultant.

25X1

1. At your direction, the rate of compensation to be applied to the appointment of [] has been reviewed. To determine the applicable rate, the level of difficulty and responsibility of the consultant work he will perform has been analyzed by use of classification procedures in effect for staff employees.

2. [] rate of compensation was proposed by the AD/RR at $50.00 per diem or equivalent to GS-17, the salary level of the Deputy Assistant Director, ORR. [] level of responsibility, however, is considered to be below that of the Division and Staff Chief level in ORR. GS-15, but

[] Division of ORR. In fact, his function is closely comparable to that of the former ORR position of Statistician GS-14, which existed in 1951 with responsibility of serving as Statistical Advisor to the AD/RR and to Division Chiefs on matters of utilization of statistical techniques in the field of economic intelligence analysis and reporting. Outside the Agency, a comparable position of Statistician to the Council of Economic Advisors is compensated at the GS-14 rate. Accordingly, it is recommended that the GS-14 salary level be used for compensating [] This will result in a daily rate range of $36.96 to $40.77 per day, which it is recommended be rounded to $40.00 per day for the appointment.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

THROUGH: Deputy Director/Intelligence

SUBJECT: Request for Approval to Approach Prospective
Consultant [redacted]

25X1

1. Problem

To obtain authority to approach [redacted] to determine his availability to act as consultant on statistics for the Office of Research and Reports.

25X1

2. Facts Bearing on the Problem

a. The production of economic intelligence requires an analysis of statistical data.

b. The application of statistical regression techniques is essential to the carrying out of accurate statistical data.

c. The Office of Research and Reports has only one other prospective consultant on statistical methods.

d. At present, the Office of Research and Reports has only limited competence to deal with the problems of statistical analysis; consequently, consultation with professional consultants on statistical methods is required.

e. [redacted] Chairman, Statistics Department, American University, Washington, D. C., is eminently qualified to perform this consulting service because of his outstanding academic and professional work in the fields of mathematics and statistical analysis (see TAB A).

f. Indices checks have been made and approval has been received from the Security Office.

3. Discussion

a. Much of the research of the Office of Research and Reports depends on constructing estimates from indirect evidence and requires careful application of proper sampling, regression, and correlation techniques in order to avoid serious errors. It is planned to use [] consultative services to assist the Office of Research and Reports in the construction and review of time series for production of specific commodities. These series are developed on the basis of information available on inputs of the commodity or on the industrial consumption of the commodity. [] assistance in developing this type of problem can be invaluable.

b. It is proposed to pay [] $50.00 W.A.E., plus per diem and travel, whenever applicable. It is estimated that his services will be required three days per month.

25X1

4. Recommendation

a. That the Office of Research and Reports be authorized to approach [] to determine his availability to act as a consultant of statistics.

25X1

b. That [] be paid ⁴⁰$50.00 W.A.E., plus per diem and travel, whenever applicable.
